

LANTERN LANE FARM

Where Healing Happens

Brandie received her Master's degree in Marriage and Family Therapy from Trevecca Nazarene University. She also has a master's degree in Business Administration and a Bachelor's degree in Organizational Leadership. Brandie changed career paths to become a counselor recognizing the importance of helping others create space to identify and embrace their true selves.

Brandie frequently works with people experiencing suicidal ideations, depression, grief, low self-esteem, relationship difficulties, and those struggling with sexual orientation, using a cognitive and dialectical behavioral approach, coupled with Narrative and Solution Focused Therapy while considering Attachment Theory.

Brandie is passionate about working with teens and couples and is currently working toward becoming a Gottman Certified Therapist. Trained in Prepare/Enrich, she helps couples seeking premarital therapy and those navigating healing and wholeness. Brandie creates and presents workshops to assist youth in rehabilitating their lives away from crime. A West Tennessee native, Brandie enjoys sports and the outdoors and time with family and friends.
