

LANTERN LANE FARM

Where Healing Happens

Kerri is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and has a Master's of Social Work degree from Loma Linda University, California. She has been working with children and families for over 15 years, with specialty experience in the areas of multi-disciplinary early childhood intervention related to dysregulation/tantrums, attachment, trauma, autism and specialized parenting. She has experience supporting varying diagnoses including Autism Spectrum Disorder, Oppositional Defiant Disorder, and Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD).

Kerri's passion is providing caregivers with strategies to improve their interactions with young children (ages 0-7).

She is committed to looking at the whole picture of the family and the child. This includes seeing every possible area of their life as a strength to build upon.

Lantern Lane Farm is a 501(c)(3) non-profit counseling center located just outside of Nashville, Tennessee.

Our Mission is to provide restorative and compassionate care to those who need spiritual, emotional, and physical healing through traditional and equine-assisted counseling services in a peaceful, countryside setting.

We provide services on a sliding fee scale based on your total household income. We are committed to making services available to all, so that no one is ever turned away because they cannot afford therapy.
